

Y6

End of KS2 Curriculum

WW1/2

Here you will learn about the countries involved in ww1/2, the treaties that were made and broken. You will also learn about the importance of trenches, the disease that could render a soldier ill and fighting was ceased over Christmas.

Here you discover the evolution of democracy, beginning in Ancient Greece and exploring how it developed, changed, and expanded over time to shape the modern democracies we have today

Evolution of Democracy

Here you'll be learning about the crime and punishments of various time periods. The various equipment used and what crime would render what punishment

Crime and Punishment

Here you'll investigate the mystery of Sutton Hoo's empty Saxon grave.

Y5

Anglo-Saxons & Scots (Picts)

Here you'll learn how the Picts (Scots) fought to keep the Anglo-Saxons and the Romans at bay.

Learn how the Roman Empire rose to power, brought major changes to Britain—many still visible today—and why this powerful empire eventually collapsed.

Roman Invasion & Roman Britain

Establishing an Empire

You'll find out about how each empire established itself — the Ottoman, British and Roman Empires — and explore the role Queen

Victoria played

Y4

Invade and Conquer

Here you will learn about the impact the Ancient Greeks have had on the modern world, the key battles they fought, and the origins of the Olympic Games, including why they were created and why they continue to be celebrated today.

Ancient Greece

Here you'll explore what makes a successful invasion, learning how countries use weaponry, tactics, luck, and their surrounding environment to gain an advantage over their opponents.

Y3

Mayan civilization

Here you will learn about the beliefs the Maya followed, the city-states and communities they formed, and why chocolate was so important to them and held great significance in their society.

In this unit, you will learn what life was like in Victorian times, how inventions such as trains and factories changed Britain, who Queen Victoria was and why she is remembered, the differences between rich and poor families, and how the Victorian period shaped the world we live in today

Victorian Times

In this unit, you will learn who the Ancient Egyptians were and where they lived, why the River Nile was essential for life, what the pyramids and tombs tell us about their beliefs, who Tutankhamun was and why he is famous, and how life in Ancient Egypt compares to life today.

Ancient Egypt

Stone Age

In this unit, you will learn what life was like during the Stone Age, how people found food and shelter, the tools and inventions that helped them survive, what Stonehenge is and why it is important, and how life changed from the Stone Age to later times

Y1 / 2

End of KS1 Curriculum

How transportation has changed.
The progression and history of flight and cars

Travel and Transport

Here you will learn all about past and present and explore and compare topics such as transport, building and toys.

Past and Present: London

The Great Fire of London

Here you will explore the key events of 'The Great Fire of London'. We will look at London in the past and compare it to the present day.

Seven Excellent Explorers

Here you will learn all about James Cook and other explorers and their accomplishments travelling the world.

Here you will learn about the significance of Remembrance Day. You will learn about the people and animals in

War and Remembrance